

From Pangaea to Today...

Plate tectonics changes the face of the world. Over time, the continents change shape and change position.

Label each of the maps below to show the following:

- South America
- North America
- Africa
- The UK

Now, write a paragraph to describe the movement over time of each place. Remember to include compass directions and how long ago it was!

