

Circuit Symbol Bingo Questions

Bulb – a component that emits light when connected in an electrical circuit.

Open switch – stops the flow of charges.

Closed switch – this is pressed to allow the charges to flow around the circuit.

Ammeter – a device used to measure the electrical current in a circuit.

Voltmeter – a device used to measure the potential difference across two points in a circuit.

Motor – a component that converts electrical energy into mechanical energy.

Battery – a source of power.

Conductor – a material that will allow a flow of charges to pass through it.

